UPLIFTING, INTIMATE AND INDIVIDUAL

As an actor, writer and producer for 20 years, I intuitively understand the sensitivity required to connect to an audience. I see my role as a conduit of positive energy which connects everyone in the room with invisible threads. A key way of making this happen is through story. As a professional story-teller I aim to tell your story with clarity and lightness and open up the hearts and imagination of your guests.

Below are some organisations I collaborate with and events I have hosted.

Rainbow Giving Australia

Aurora Ball, Sydney Town Hall

RGA's major annual fund-raising event for LGBTQIA+ charities. Co-hosted with Rhys Nicholson.
